Recommendation Letter

The Harvard Graduate School of Education would appreciate a statement from you concerning how well you think this applicant will do as a graduate student and as a leader in the field of education. It would be helpful to the committee if you could address the following in your letter of recommendation.

For all applicants:

- Applicant's intellectual ability
- Applicant's talents and strengths, as well as weaknesses or developmental needs
- Expectations regarding what the individual will be doing in five to ten years and his/her contribution to the field of education

For Doctor of Education Leadership (Ed.L.D.) applicants, it would be helpful if you could also comment on the applicant's:

- Demonstrated leadership
- Impact within your group or organization
- Ability to initiate and implement change in a complex environment
- Ability to receive and incorporate constructive feedback (please include specific examples, if possible)

May HGSE use your letter of recommendation in support of any fellowships to which this individual applies?
